Beauty of Taiwan
Taiwan, a natural gateway for travelers to Asia, was christened "Ilha Formosa" by Portuguese mariners in the 16th century. Although Taiwan is a small island, the surface geology takes on a variety of formations, cultivating an abundance of peculiar landscapes and ecosystems. The rich and lively culture and lifestyles of the distinctive tribes are precious cultural heritage of Taiwan, imparting exotic fascinations of a multicultural combination.

A Dining Paradise
Taiwan is a veritable paradise for the true gourmet enjoying fine authentic cuisine from all different regions of China. Taiwanese people not only master the traditional Chinese specialties, but also continuously develop new culinary treats. Your choices are endless, ranging from light-seasoned Taiwanese dishes to spicy-flavored Shunshun dishes. In addition to these delicacies, the unique snacks in the night markets are also irresistible to tourists.

Sparkling Taipei
Taipei is an exuberant city with a rich culture and cosmopolitan life. As the political, economic, educational, and recreational center of the country, Taipei offers an array of interesting sights. Visit Taipei 101, one of the tallest buildings in the world, or take a leisurely walk through Shihlin Tourist Night Market and experience local cuisine as it is—fresh and full of flavor. Taipei also has easy access to attractions such as Beitou hot springs and the National Palace Museum, one of the world's renowned museums.

Welcome Message

Dear Colleagues,

On behalf of the Taiwan Movement Disorder Society, we are very excited to be able to formally invite you to attend the 3rd Taiwan International Congress of Parkinson’s Disease and Movement Disorders, which will be held on March 28-29, 2015 in Howard Civil Service International House, Taipei, Taiwan.

Continuing from the success of the 1st congress, this year we will bring together more renowned speakers and the scientific program will be more in-depth and enriched. We sincerely hope you can once again join us in learning the latest research and perspectives, to share knowledge and to actively participate in advancing the field of Parkinson’s disease and Movement Disorders.

Taipei is worth your repeated visits. Its friendly people, vibrant culture and diversified food choices make this city the second home for international visitors. The beautiful natural scenery around the island will take weeks, even months to see and experience. Taiwan is the place that is always full of surprises for you to explore.

We look forward to welcoming you and your colleagues in the same field to this congress and hope that you would take advantage of the exciting lectures and educational opportunities offered by the congress.

Best regards,

Jui-Jueng Lin
